

Do you have any new covers up your sleeve (maybe some Charli XCX or Lana Del Rey)?! We're actually doing these 15 second instrument covers. So we did "Blame" by Calvin Harris and John Newman, "Taking Out Loud" by Ed Sheeran and we definitely have more up our sleeve. I think if I recall we have Charli XCX as well.

What are some beauty routines and trends that you live by?

I call it a fun-bun: basically you twist your hair into a bun. I'll do that when my hair is wet and I'll take it out and it falls into these nice curls. My hair is naturally curly too. It's nice because it takes zero effort and then when you take it down it looks like you actually put some time into it. A nice little trick. Also, I could pretty much live at Sephora. I have a problem, I'll admit it. I love putting on makeup and getting my makeup done. I'm definitely girly in that aspect.

Who would make your #mcm?

The list is really long and there's different crushes: professional and personal. Professional crush, because I think they're amazing: Sam Smith, Ed Sheeran. Personal crush: obviously Ryan Gosling, that's not even fair. Definitely, Chris Hemsworth. Also, People always has it really down with their "sexiest man alive" choices.

How are you owning 2015?

I've got my album, I'm doing a lot more shows, hopefully another video...I have an amazing team and an amazing band so I'm excited to see how everything plays out.
